TERMS & CONDITIONS:

- Marquee holders must acquire their own insurance for their supplies, utensils and equipment.
- Stall-holders with cooking options must have valid public liability insurance. It is the responsibility of the seller to comply with the prevailing food hygiene regulations at selling of any cooked or packaged food.
- Stall-holders with cooking permission must strictly comply with Health & Safety regulations to handle LPG gas cylinders and electrical equipment. In addition, see page (4) for further requirements.
- Marquee holders are not permitted to carry into or sell any alcoholic beverages under any circumstance, at the venue. Only the liquor licence holders approved by FoC will be authorised to sell alcoholic beverages, on the day.
- Electricity and water will NOT be supplied to any cooking, trade, OGA, OBA or charity marquees. A limited number of communal drinking water outlets will be made available at the venue.
- Stallholders are restricted to the trade for which they have applied on their application and must appoint a marquee manager for the day.
- Marquees and trade stalls must always be kept clean and tidy. All waste must be emptied into the bins provided.
- A designated car parking area will be provided for stall-holders. Access to the trading area will be granted between 7.00am – 9.00am on Sunday 06th July 2025.
- All marquee holders MUST clearly display their complementary car park tickets in their vehicles to be readable from outside and carry their complementary entrance tickets at all times. None of these tickets are transferable and in the absence of any, purchase of new carpark and entrance tickets is a MUST.
- The FOC will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused to any goods, provisions or items of value of the stall holder. The stall holder shall be responsible for all such items at all times. If the event is cancelled or abandoned for any reasons, stall-holders should have their own insurance to recover any losses.

THE ORGANISERS RESERVE THE RIGHT TO STRICTLY ENFORCE THE AGREED TERMS & CONDITIONS.
